Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

We would like to take this opportunity to wish all the students, both new and returning to education, a very safe, happy and productive school year.

I dreamed I stood in a studio and watched two sculptors there.
The clay they used was a young child's mind
and they fashioned it with care.

One was a teacher the tools that were used were books, music and art.
The other, a parent, worked with a guiding hand
and a gentle, loving heart.

Day after day, the teacher toiled with touch that was deft and sure.
While the parent laboured close nearby and polished and smoothed it o'er.

And when their task was done,
they were proud of what they had wrought.
For the things they had moulded into a child could neither be sold or bought.

And each agreed they would have failed if each had worked alone.
For behind the parents stood the school and behind the teacher stood a home.
