Seventeenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

WHEN AUTUMN DAYS ARE HERE

I count my blessings one by one whate'er the time of year.
And yet it seems I count them more when Autumn days are here.
The nearby fields of ripened grain, the harvest gathered in;
Rich bounty from the hand of God, to bless our land again.
I lift my eyes to Autumn hills of flaming red and gold.
A picture only God could paint, so splendidous to behold.
The gentle hush upon the land, wild geese in southward flight.
The harvest moon hanging low, a giant lantern bright.
I count my blessings one by one - I'm thankful for them all.
And still it seems I count them more when comes the Season Fall.
