Twenty Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time

OCTOBER'S SYMPHONY

In October's realm, nature's brush unfurls,
Bringing forth hues that enchant boys and girls.
Autumn's palette paints a splendid scene,
A miracle of seasons, vibrant and serene.

Brilliant colors burst, like fireworks in the sky,
Golden, red, and orange, catching every eye.
Each season brings a gift, a part of nature's plan,
But October's beauty, a masterpiece at hand.

Embracing change, we witness nature's art,
A reminder of miracles, etched in every heart.
October's symphony, a visual delight,
The magic of the seasons, an awe-inspiring sight.
