

Vol. 33 No. 40

22nd October 2023

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

MAN CANNOT LIVE BY BREAD ALONE

He lived in a palace on a mountain of gold.
Surrounded by riches and wealth untold.
Priceless possessions and treasures of art.
But he died alone of a hungry heart.
For man cannot live by bread alone.
No matter what he may have or own.
For though he reaches his earthly goal.
He'll waste away with a starving soul.
But he who eats of the holy bread.
Will always find his spirit fed.
And even the poorest of men can afford.
To feast at the table prepared by the Lord.

*Do then, bless the house of your eternal servant that it may be before you forever; for you,
Lord God, have promised, and by your blessing the house of your servant shall be blessed forever. Samuel 7:29*

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE DEAD

As we approach the month of November we are planning our Annual Memorial Masses for all who have died recently.

- Carrigeen Sunday 5th November at 8.50 a.m.
Mooncoin Saturday 11th November at 7 p.m.
Kilnaspic Sunday 12th November at 8.50 a.m.

Families who lost a loved one during the past year are asked to present a Memorial Candle at the Remembrance Masses in memory of their loved one. If you would like to honour and remember your loved one at these special Masses, please let us know by phoning the Parish Office during office hours, or drop a note or email into the office at any time.

Furthermore, Altar lists of the Dead will be available to all to write the names of their loved ones, which, in turn, will be placed on the altars of the churches of the parish, and your loved ones will be prayed for at each Mass during November.

We will also have a memory wall in each Church. You may place a photo or memory card of your loved ones on the memory wall.
